SNA MEETS WITH USDA

On June 30th, SNA sent a letter to USDA Secretary Tom Vilsack concerning the recent announcement from the national distributor U.S. Foods on the cancellation of school food contracts.

In this letter, SNA illustrated the dire situation that these school districts face trying to find a distributor to supply food for their school meal programs. The letter also conveys SNA's ongoing concern that other school districts may continue to be impacted and the potential for more widespread disruptions in the supply chain.
