MONDAY MORNING

SNAPa Member News for a Monday Morning!
June 12, 2017

Full Booths?

Less than 2 MONTHS until the 2017 Annual Conference and, as of this past weekend, there are less than 6 booths still available on the “floor” of the “Biggest & Best ...” Stay tuned because we just may have to add some wiggle room to accommodate the tremendous interest in being an exhibitor.

THE WHOLE PACKAGE

As part of “The Whole Package” to our many Business & Industry Partners who will be exhibiting at the Kalahari this summer, please remember that SNAPa will provide “pipe & drape” (black & white ... think zebras!), your table, waste can, chairs and signage. The floor of the Kalahari Ballroom is carpeted so there is no real need for you to lug more carpeting to the hotel or rent extra ... you can, of course ... and all this information is in the Exhibitor Packet that SNAPa has sent to you from the show designer, Spectrum. The Packet (as a pdf) has information about drayage, arranging for electricity directly through the Kalahari, and many other FAQs you might have.

If you DID NOT receive the Packet ... if it went into the dark hole somewhere in your computer, simply e-mail or give SNAPa a call and ask for another!

Thank You to SNAPa’s more than 200 Business & Industry Partners for your continuing support of school nutrition in Pennsylvania!

Just a thought ... in 1962 President John F. Kennedy gave his staffer, Dave Powers, a beer mug on his 50th birthday. It was engraved with one of JFK’s favorite quotes from Aubrey Menen’s “The Ramayana,” ...

“There are three things in life which are real: God, Human Folly, and Laughter. The first two are beyond our comprehension, so we must do what we can with the third.”
